

The decision of Pappas Broadcasting to offer free air time to Republican candidates -- without extending the same offer to the opposing Democrats and "third-party" candidates is a clear abuse of the public airways. Pappas must be immediately reprimanded in the strongest terms and reminded that the company uses the broadcast band only at the public's convenience.

Ed Cray